CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
SPOKANE, WA

III. Statement of Claim:

On or about 10/09/06 Officer Snider of the Spokane Police Department made an investigatory stop to Plaintiff, due to prejudice and without probable cause, and knowingly and maliciously made false statements concerning Plaintiff's alleged acts committed on the date stated above and falsely arrested and imprisoned Plaintiff for the crime of "Attempt to Allude a Police Vehicle," "Reckless Driving," and "Possession of Marijuana" (Case No. F63334), a felony and gross misdemeanors, in the State of Washington. During the arrest Officer Snider used excessive force when Plaintiff was fully cooperating which caused severe physical and emotional injury to Plaintiff. Following the arrest Officer Snider made false statements to the Spokane County Superior Court in his affidavit of probable cause to make the false accusations more aggravating to the court to cause Plaintiff further harm. Defendant Snider used his position under color of law to cause harm to Plaintiff Sotin. Plaintiff reported these crimes committed by Officer Snider to Spokane Chief of Police, Defendant Ann Kirkpatrick and Spokane County Prosecutor Defendant Steve Tucker and requested further investigation. The Spokane Police Department and Spokane County Prosecutor's Office use polygraph examinations and other tools to eliminate suspects in criminal investigations when innocence is claimed. Plaintiff Sotin made requests to both Defendant Kirkpatrick and Tucker for polygraph and further investigation. Both Defendants denied requests and failed to investigate complaint in a non prejudicial manner, maliciously prosecuting Plaintiff denying him equal protection of the law.
